

Contract Training Consultant – Flexible Location (Australia)

July 2022

Triple P International is responsible for the dissemination of the Triple P - Positive Parenting Program® (Triple P), an evidence-based multi-level family intervention program for the prevention and treatment of behaviour problems in children and adolescents. This award-winning program promotes the independence and health of families by enhancing parents' knowledge, skills and confidence and is based on decades of research and clinical trials. Triple P is now recruiting additional Contract Training Consultants to join our team in Australia. Location is flexible but some travel will be required.

The Role

Training Consultants are contracted to train and accredit practitioners in Triple P programs (via video call or in-person) from a variety of disciplines (i.e. early help, health, education and social services). This includes:

- Delivery of active skills training programs, 1-5 days duration
- Delivery of one-day workshops to help prepare participants for their accreditation process
- Assess participants' parent consultation skills
- Delivery of clinical support days on specific implementation topics

The Person

To be considered for this role the following criteria will be considered:

- Availability for a minimum of 3 consecutive days a month, term time only (equates to a minimum of 36 days per year). Assignments are determined by Triple P Australia and negotiated depending upon trainer's availability and work flexibility
- Willingness to travel within Australia for in-person events (may include out of hours or weekend travel)
- Post-graduate degree in psychology (e.g., Masters, PhD), preferably clinical or educational (or related field)
- Experience in group training facilitation and/or teaching.
- Experience with online platforms for delivery of training
- Familiarity and experience with Triple P, particularly being an Accredited Triple P Provider, is preferable although not essential
- An ability to work with others and facilitate groups to work effectively together
- Excellent communication skills
- The ability to give constructive feedback in a positive, non-judgmental way
- Flexibility and adaptability in relation to training arrangements and plans

Why Work With Triple P?

- Negotiable working relationships based on availability and circumstances
- Twelve-month extendable contract terms
- Competitive pay rates, including travel, accommodation and meal allowances and travel insurance where applicable
- Join a team working towards making a positive difference to the lives of children and families across Australia (and the world)
- Flexible role with professional development opportunities

Application Process

To apply:

- Please send an up-to-date copy of your CV
- A covering letter (maximum 2 pages) outlining your experience and how your skills would be relevant to the position.
- Please submit your application to recruitment@triplep.net or follow the prompts for online applications.
- Interviews may be held via video call.
- This role is immediately available

Thank you for your time and application. Please note that only shortlisted applicants will be contacted.
